IMPORTANT NOTICES FOR MEETING ATTENDEES

The 2025 Central Division meeting will be held entirely online rather than in person. Sessions will be held on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of two consecutive weeks: February 20–22 and February 27–March 1, 2025. All meeting times are in Central Time.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE VIRTUAL MEETING FORMAT

The virtual meeting will include many of the same types of events and sessions as in-person meetings. These events will be held via Zoom. Unless presenters opt out, meeting sessions will be recorded and the recordings will be available for registrants to view for one year following the meeting.

To present or actively participate in sessions, you will need a computer, smartphone, or tablet with a camera, microphone, and internet access (ideally, high-speed internet access). To view session recordings, you only need a computer, smartphone, or tablet that can play videos.

For more information about the virtual format, please visit the FAQ page. Meeting participants and attendees should also review the 2025 Central Division Virtual Meeting Guide and the standard Guide for Meeting Participants.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT REGISTRATION

Registration at www.apaonline.org is open and will be available through the year after the meeting during which the session recordings remain available. Registration costs $55 for student members, $155 for regular members, and $280 for non-members.

MEETING HASHTAG

The hashtag for the 2025 Central Division meeting is #APACentral25.

The AAPT-APA Teaching Hub

The American Association of Philosophy Teachers (AAPT) and the American Philosophical Association Committee on the Teaching of Philosophy (CTP) have co-organized a two-day conference on teaching for the 2025 Central Division meeting. We are aiming to bring the collegial and supportive culture of the AAPT to the APA; highlight teaching within the context of an APA meeting; stretch beyond the traditional APA session format to offer sessions that model active learning; and attract a broader range of philosophers to the divisional meetings. All meeting times are in Central Time.

The Climate Hub

The American Philosophical Association's 2025 Central Division meeting will be the first APA conference to be held virtually for reasons of environmental sustainability and accessibility. This is an experiment and an exciting historic moment. Philosophers for Sustainability organized the Climate Hub as one strand of the conference, featuring a combination of invited and submitted sessions on topics connected to both philosophy and climate change. All meeting times are in Central Time.
