

Kazuo Ishiguro, Nobel Prize winning novelist

B.A. in Philosophy, Kent University

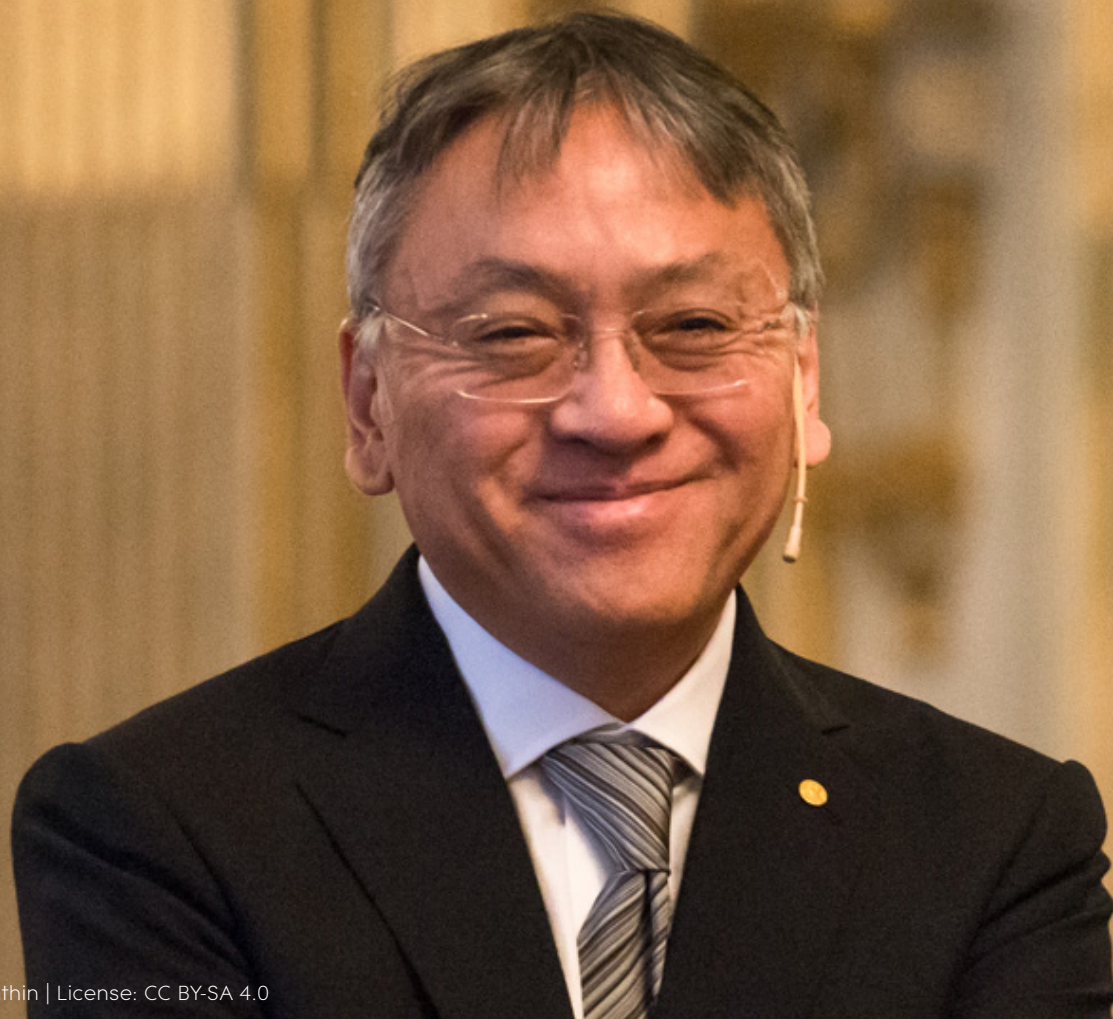

Photo: Frankie Fouganthin | License: CC BY-SA 4.0

Plato's Socratic dialogues made an impact on me at a formative stage. [I was interested in] things like Euthyphro and Gorgias, in which Socrates takes apart various self-satisfied types who feel sure they know what 'a good life' is, but whose beliefs are based on nonsense and contradiction.

Ishiguro, K. (2015). Kazuo Ishiguro Answers Your Questions. Waterstones.com
<https://www.waterstones.com/blog/kazuo-ishiguro-answers-your-questions>