Brief Summary of Project or Initiative *
In January of 2018, I founded Lawrence Talks!, an independent organization dedicated to modeling critical analysis of issues important to the community of Lawrence, Kansas - home of the University of Kansas. There are a number of ways we hope to do this. First, we engage in dialogue via our website (lawrencetalks.org) with other academic members on issues that are topical and/ or foundational to answering or addressing specific local, state, and national concerns. Third, we encourage students and non-academic members of the community to read our responses and engage in the dialogue by commenting on the blog/ topic that interests them. Finally, we take their questions or comments and develop small events that are guided by said questions and comments. So far, Lawrence Talks! has published four submissions and held two events. We are currently working with an on-campus organization in organizing at 3 events this Fall and 3 more in the Spring semester.

Describe How Funds Would Be Spent *
Most of this money will be used for redesigning our website and other administrative items:
Website - $400-$500
Flyers - $75
Events (food, venues, etc.): $150 - $200
