

Department of Physical Therapy
Student Presentations

Friday, May 15, 2015
8:00 am to 3:30 pm
Science & Engineering Bldg. Auditorium
6.0 hours or .60 CEUs

8:00 - 8:05 am	Introduction
8:05 - 8:45 am	Betina Bair Mariana Gama Marissa Toberman	Prevalence and risk factors for neck and shoulder musculoskeletal symptoms in users of touch-screen tablet computers	Advisor: Szu-Ping Lee
8:45 - 9:25 am	Jordan Isom Shaylyn Kennedy Justin May Sam Moore	Immediate effects of cervical spine manipulation on gait parameters in individuals with and without mechanical neck pain	Advisors: Emilio Puentedura
9:25 - 10:05 am	John McConnell Brian Silverman	Comparing usability and variance of low- and high technology approaches to gait analysis in healthy adults	Advisor: Robbin Hickman
10:05 - 10:15 am	Break
10:15 - 10:55 am	Stephanie Barton David Brown Talia Joyce	Four weeks of minimalist style running training reduced lumbar paraspinal muscle activation during shod running	Advisor: Szu-Ping Lee
10:55 - 11:35 am	Jacob Blood Joshua Ostrander Granuaile Parrish	Do the therapists words really matter?: the effects of enhanced and decreased expectation on balance performance in those with and without Parkinson's disease	Advisor: Merrill Landers
11:35 - 12:15 pm	Chris Ansell Jillian May Samantha Novotny Patricia Stevenson	Variability and characteristics of gait and balance in children with Autism Spectrum Disorder	Advisor: Robbin Hickman
12:15-1:30 pm	Lunch
1:30 - 2:10 pm	Kevin Carr Morgan King Erin Oelkhaus Brendan Parry	The immediate effects of cervicothoracic manipulation versus stretching on upper trapezius pressure pain thresholds and range of motion in individuals without neck pain	Advisor: Emilio Puentedura
2:10 - 2:50 pm	Brittany Keating Jason Pyfer Kim Vialpondo	The effects of instruction on landing strategies in female college-aged dancers and non-dancers; a pilot study	Advisors: Cassy Turner Szu-Ping Lee
2:50 - 3:30 pm	Jimmy Bokinskie Payton Johnson Trevor Mahoney	No-show by patients for outpatient physical therapy: a national survey	Advisor: Daniel Young
3:30 - 4:00 pm	Break
4:00 - 5:00 pm	Cords and Awards Ceremony

*The Science and Engineering Building (SEB) Auditorium is located west of Maryland Parkway between the Cottage Grove Parking Garage and Bigelow Health Sciences (BHS) on UNLV campus. It is accessible off Cottage Grove Avenue. Convenient parking is located adjacent to the SEB and in the BHS parking lot. The SEB auditorium is on the first floor.
Parking passes for the day are available for $4 at the parking office on Harmon.
Questions? Contact Kai-Yu Ho at 702-895-2629.*

