

Duncan Clark Awardee

Max Pepper, MD, DrPH

1997

---

Max Pepper, MD, MPH, is a Clinical Professor of Family Medicine and Community Health at Tufts University School of Medicine. Also, he is a Senior Consultant of the Department of medicine at the Baystate Medical Center in Springfield, Massachusetts. Dr. Pepper also donates his time as a consultant and professor to the new graduate Department of Community Health at Bir Zeit University in Ramallah on the West Bank in Palestine.

Dr. Pepper is a leading advocate for providing quality health care for the poor and indigent, he has been instrumental in organizing programs and groups committed to addressing this need. Dr. Pepper has served on the ATPM Executive Committee and Board of Directors as President-elect, President and Past President. Was the President of the ATPM Foundation and also served as Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee on Coordination of AAMC Study on the General Professional Education of the Physician.

Participating in a variety of public health and preventive medicine organizations, Dr. Pepper is a fellow of the American College of Preventive Medicine, the American Psychiatric Association and the American Public Health Association. He currently serves as the President of the Public Health Forum and also serves on the Executive Committee of the Franklin County Community Health Center Planning Group in Turners Falls, Massachusetts.