

10

MODULE 10

Health Information Technology: Using Data to Inform Practice

Quiz

Anne Lynn, MPH

Public Health
Learning Modules
Using Healthy People 2020
to Improve Population Health

College of Health Professions and Social Work
TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

- What is healthcare information technology (Health IT)?
 - a. The use of computer applications to record financial information electronically.
 - b. The use of applications to record and store administrative and financial information electronically.
 - c. The use of computer applications to record, store, protect, retrieve, and transfer clinical, administrative, and financial information electronically.
 - d. The use of computer applications to record, store, protect, retrieve, transfer, and disseminate clinical, administrative, and financial information electronically.
- Which of the following is not an opportunity created by transitioning to EHRs?
 - a. Can improve work flow and productivity
 - b. Save in other areas like outsourcing dictation
 - c. More freedom to customize records/enter notes
 - d. Can improve the quality of care by standardizing visits and services
- What do Health Information Exchanges (HIEs) provide?
 - a. A connecting point
 - b. A reduction in the duplication of services
 - c. Governance and management
 - d. All of the above
- Super-utilizers currently...
 - a. Are identified only after they have overused health center and emergency services
 - b. Are charged a high cost due to their level of neediness
 - c. Have been identified using data profiles
 - d. Both a and b