INTRODUCTION TO PREVENTION

Welcome!
What this course is about

- Principles of prevention
- Population health
- Interprofessional teamwork
Why prevention?
Why population health?

Determinants of health

http://www.cdc.gov/socialdeterminants/FAQ.html

© 2011, Department of Community and Family Medicine, Duke University, Durham NC
Why interprofessional?

Health care is a team sport!

© 2011, Department of Community and Family Medicine, Duke University, Durham NC
What this course is about

- Principles of prevention
- Population health
- Interprofessional teamwork
Interprofessional education at Duke

- Introduction to Prevention – MD, PA, DPT
- Practice – MD, nursing
- Practice in the Health System – PA, DPT
- Interprofessional Case Conferences
- IHI Open School
- Other possibilities
  - Disaster Preparedness
  - International rotations
  - Community Health Day
Teamwork

Poor Rudolph, was about to experience yet another rejection from the other reindeer....
Course activities – Week 1

1:00 – Course Nuts And Bolts
1:45 – Team Tasks 1 – 5
2:30 - Break
2:45 – Improving Health: A Team Sport
   Leah Devlin, DDS, MPH
   Gillings Visiting Professor
   UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health
3:30 – Team Tasks 6 – 8
4:30 - Overview of Project

© 2011, Department of Community and Family Medicine, Duke University, Durham NC
Course Activities – Weeks 2 & 3

- 1-3 pm Team Based Learning (TBL)
  - 3 locations
    - Duke South Amphitheater
    - PA Classroom 208
    - DPT Classroom
  - IRA, GRA
    - Bring ethernet cables!!
  - Group Application Exercises

- 3-5 pm Team Project Worktime
Assignment for week 2:

USPSTF Guide to Clinical Preventive Services
http://www.ahrq.gov/clinic/pocketgd1011/

- Read Intro, Appendix A
- Explore a few preventive services
Course Activities – Week 4

- Team Presentations
  - Armory in Downtown Durham
  - Electronic “posters”
  - Each team presents as a group
  - Faculty evaluators

- Multiple Choice Exam
Course Directors

- DPT students – Carol Figuers, PT, EdD
- Med students -- Victoria Kaprielian, MD
- PA students – Antoinette Polito, PA-C
Questions?