ALPHA SIGMA GAMMA: INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE HONORARY SOCIETY

Alpha Sigma Gamma was created in 1993 to recognize the academic and scholarly achievements of real estate students, faculty and professionals throughout the world. Sponsored by the American Real Estate Society (ARES), it is the premier organization of its kind with over 700 lifetime members and a growing number of active chapters.

Students interested in applying for membership in Alpha Sigma Gamma can do so by coordinating with the chapter president at the university where they are enrolled or by directly contacting the organization's headquarters to verify eligibility for membership and to process their application. Lifetime membership fees are $40 and can be paid by check or credit card. Those initiated receive a membership certificate, lapel pin and a copy of The Commercial Real Estate Education, Career and Resource Guide, 2nd Edition.

Full-time university faculty members interested in forming an Alpha Sigma Gamma chapter, or simply finding out more about the organization and its benefits, can do so by contacting the President of Alpha Sigma Gamma directly or by going to the ARES website at www.aresnet.org. A complimentary membership in Alpha Sigma Gamma is provided to all university chapter presidents, along with all information needed to help their undergraduate and/or graduate students apply for and become members.
