Nominations Open for Vice-Program Chair

The American Real Estate Society (ARES) invites nominations for the annual election of its Vice Program Chair. The Vice Program Chair is the introductory step in the ARES elected leadership track, and the individual who is elected as Vice Program Chair will eventually serve as President of the organization. The term of office will begin on July 1, 2020. More information about the Vice Program Chair may be found using the link below. Interested parties are strongly encouraged to consider the information from the enclosed position description and announcement before agreeing to accept a nomination for Vice Program Chair.

NOMINATION PROCESS

A complete nomination for the 2020 election of the ARES Vice Program Chair will consist of the following components, all submitted digitally:

- A nomination statement written by an ARES member in good standing. Self-nominations are not acceptable. This statement should include the nominee’s past and present involvement with ARES and the strengths that he/she possesses that would make him/her an excellent member of the ARES leadership team. This nomination should not exceed 350 words.
- A statement of acceptance of the nomination written by the nominee. This statement is an opportunity for the nominee to outline his or her vision for ARES with the membership at large. This statement should not exceed 500 words.
- A current copy of the nominee’s CV.
- A quality head shot photograph of the nominee that may be easily presented in a 2-inch x 2-inch (5.08cm x 5.08cm) square.

SUBMISSION PROCESS

All materials must be submitted electronically to Sean Salter, ARES Parliamentarian, not later than 11:59pm (US Central Time) on May 1, 2020, via email: Sean.Salter@mtsu.edu. Only complete nominations will be forwarded to the ARES membership for consideration.

ELECTION PROCESS

All complete nominations will be formatted and presented to the ARES membership as candidates for the Vice Program Chair position prior to an electronic election that will be held in May 2020. The identity of the successful candidate will be announced following the election.

QUESTIONS

Please direct questions or inquiries to Sean Salter via email at Sean.Salter@mtsu.edu.