

Arkansas Newspaper Foundation Continuing Education Grant Application

2018 ArkLaMiss

Circulation, Marketing & Audience Development Conference

Arkansas Newspaper Foundation (ANF) has available four (4) continuing education grants in the amount of $200 each for the 2018 ArkLaMiss Circulation Conference, to be held Nov. 8 and 9 at the Ameristar Hotel and Casino in Vicksburg, MS. Each grant of up to $200 will help defray the cost of registration and hotel expenses for one attendee from a qualifying Arkansas Press Association member newspaper/media group.

There will be one grant awarded per Arkansas media group, with priority going to first time attendees. If all grants have not been awarded based on this criteria, the remaining grants will be awarded on a first-come-first-served basis.

Criteria

- Application is required. Grants will be awarded to one person within one media group.
- Grantee must be a current employee of an Arkansas Press Association member newspaper in good standing, and must be a resident of Arkansas.
- The Continuing Education Grant will be funded up to $200 for Conference costs, for the reimbursement of registration fees, food, lodging and/or mileage.
- Attendance at the Conference is required for grant recipients. Should a recipient become unable to attend, ANF should be notified no later than November 5.
- Receipts are required for reimbursement, including conference registration receipt. No monies will be disbursed without a receipt.
- Applicants are encouraged to retain conference receipts up to 30 days after attending the Conference. In the event a grant recipient becomes unable to attend, the award will move to the next eligible applicant.
- Grantees agree to write a summary of the Conference for publication in the Arkansas Publisher Weekly.
- Receipts, verification of attendance, and summaries must be turned in no later than December 7, 2018. Once receipts have been received and reviews, disbursement of funds will be made within 10 business days.

Application should be emailed to Terri Cobb at terri@arkansaspress.org no later than October 25, 2018. For more information, email Terri at the address above or call (501) 374-1500.
