NEWS/SPORTS EDITOR

The Star-Herald, a 4,200 paid circulation weekly in Kosciusko, MS, has an immediate opening for a news and sports editor. We’re seeking a motivated, hard-working individual eager to take on all aspects of community and sports journalism. The Star-Herald, part of a family-owned newspaper group, has a reputation for fair and thorough community news reporting and very strong sports coverage. The ideal candidate will be a self-starter with reporting experience in one or both areas, as well as familiarity with photography, page layout/design and the web. Great opportunity for early career journalist seeking a fast-paced challenge. Compensation $24,000 to $28,000 based upon experience, plus benefits. If interested, submit letter expressing interest, resume, writing samples, and references to kliorett@starherald.net. No phone calls. (6)

PRESSMAN

The Saline Courier in Benton has an immediate opening in our pressroom. If you have experience running a Goss Community off-set press, this could be a great opportunity for you. You will be working beside a press foreman with 37 years experience. The Courier publishes seven days a week in addition to numerous other contracted print jobs. CTP processing experience is a plus. Part-time work arrangement can be discussed. Full-time benefits include health insurance, accrued vacation and sick time, holiday pay and a great working environment. The Courier is an equal opportunity employer. Send resume and job history details to: Kelly Freudensprung, Publisher The Saline Courier, 321 N. Market St., Benton, AR 72015. (6)

GENERAL MANAGER

El Dorado News-Times located in El Dorado, AR, “a thriving community that places business at the core of progress,” seeks an experienced leader who is innovative and results-oriented. He or she will manage all of the operations for the El Dorado News-Times, a seven day a week newspaper and an in-house digital agency. This individual must possess exceptional leadership, marketing and communication skills as well as be dedicated to growing all aspects of a profitable newspaper. The ability to think strategically and work with managers to develop and execute plans is essential. We are looking for a proven leader with excellent organizational, financial and management skills. Community involvement is also necessary and encouraged. Ideal candidates will have experience as a general manager or advertising sales leader of a newspaper. The El Dorado News-Times is owned by WEHCO Media, an industry leader offering a competitive salary commensurate with experience and a comprehensive benefits package including health insurance, 401K and profit sharing. Resumes may be emailed to bdaniels@arkansasonline.com. (4)

NEUspaper POSITION

The Chicot County Spectator, a county seat weekly newspaper in Lake Village, Arkansas, has an opportunity for a well-rounded newspaper person to write and edit local news, design pages, and represent the newspaper in its community. Advertising experience and knowledge of agriculture would be helpful, but not required. Digital familiarity is a plus as a new, updated website is under construction. Look out of your office onto beautiful Lake Chicot, an 18 mile long oxbow lake famous for bass and crappie fishing, boating, and camping. Good benefits, good quality of life, and opportunity to find yourself a home. We might consider husband/wife team with news/ads background. Send resume, sample links, and cover letter telling us why we need each other to Barney White, publisher, at bwhite@ashleynewsobserver.com. (6)

Your Newspaper and You

Arkansas law wisely requires public notices to be printed in your newspaper to let you know about things that affect you in your home, neighborhood, city and state.

Your Newspaper and the Web

Your right to know about the activities of government and private entities is safeguarded in the public notice section of your newspaper. And, now the newspapers of Arkansas have gone one step further, banding together to create a searchable database of public notices at: PublicNoticeAds.com/AR
