REPORTERS

The Pine Bluff Commercial is seeking two reporters who have energy and a winning attitude. We are looking for reporters who can produce enterprise pieces, features and hard news. We need reporters who also aren't afraid to roll up their sleeves and challenge boards, commissions and other government entities if we believe they are not staying true to the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act. These are full-time positions with full benefits. We are a fun, lively newsroom that needs two more reporters to make us complete. Please e-mail resumes to Managing Editor John Worthen at jworthen@pbcommercial.com. No phone calls, please. At least two years' reporting experience is preferred. Daily newspaper reporting is a plus, in addition to basic photography/videography skills and social media savvy. (2)

Your Newspaper and You

Arkansas law wisely requires public notices to be printed in your newspaper to let you know about things that affect you in your home, neighborhood, city and state.

Your Newspaper and the Web

Your right to know about the activities of government and private entities is safeguarded in the public notice section of your newspaper. And, now the newspapers of Arkansas have gone one step further, banding together to create a searchable database of public notices at: PublicNoticeAds.com/AR
