Editorial Writer

The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette is looking for somebody to write unsigned editorials for its editorial column. The best candidate would be someone with Arkansas ties and experience, with a sense of humor and an (unreliable) conservative’s point of view on politics. Such a writer would be well-read, fine with (sometimes heavy) editing, and be able to explain why it’s never acceptable to put sugar in cornbread. This is a full-time position with benefits. Interested parties should email Editorial Page Editor David Barham at dbarham@arkansasonline.com. But in these days of electronic communication, phone calls are certainly welcome, too, at 501-399-3641. (1)

Photographer

Looking for full-time photographer for the Zoned Editions/Promotions Department of the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. Primary duties include shooting news and feature photos to accompany stories, shooting photo packages at community events, and writing clear and accurate cutlines. Minimum two years of experience as professional photographer preferred. Proficiency in Adobe Photoshop a must. How To Apply: Email your resume with cover letter and photo examples or link to an online portfolio to jellis@arkansasonline.com. You may also apply in person Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 9-11 a.m. at 121 E. Capitol Ave., Little Rock. (5)
