EDITORIAL WRITER

The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette is looking for somebody to write unsigned editorials for its editorial column. The best candidate would be someone with Arkansas ties and experience, with a sense of humor and an (unreliable) conservative’s point of view on politics. Such a writer would be well-read, fine with (sometimes heavy) editing, and be able to explain why it’s never acceptable to put sugar in cornbread. This is a full-time position with benefits. Interested parties should email Editorial Page Editor David Barham at dbarham@arkansasonline.com. But in these days of electronic communication, phone calls are certainly welcome, too, at 501-399-3641.
