We are doing some exciting, cutting-edge work at the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, and we are committed to giving our readers balanced, objective coverage of the day’s news. The copy desk and design desk are vital parts of our daily effort to continue traditional journalism in a nontraditional way. That’s especially true during the pandemic, which has most of us working from home. We are accepting applications for a copy editor/page designer on our night news copy desk in Little Rock. To be considered, an applicant should have a college degree in journalism and relevant experience. The journalist we’re seeking knows grammar and AP style, and can write accurate, attention-grabbing headlines.

Experience using Adobe Illustrator, InDesign and Photoshop is a plus. The person hired for this position will be expected to design news pages either immediately or soon after hiring. Must be fully vaccinated by date of hire. Accommodations considered. Drug-free workplace. EOE. Email styler@adgnwroom.com. (3)
