

SCHOOL DISTRICT BUSINESS LEADER (+ MBA OPTION)

BECOME A DISTRICT-WIDE LEADER AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE ON A LARGER SCALE

Most students are unaware they need to accumulate 60 graduate hours to receive SDBL certification — a New York State requirement.

Our SDBL+MBA program is the only program of its kind in New York State with the opportunity to take classes fully online, helping you earn SDBL certification while working toward a master's degree in a respected field of study. Additionally, you will receive a CAS in Organizational Leadership and Change Management (OLCM), bolstering your resume and career opportunities.

WHY SDBL + MBA AT SAINT ROSE?

- Receive a 20% discount on the entire 60-credit program if you're a member of the Association of School Business Officials of New York (ASBO New York).
- Take SDBL courses online and MBA courses on your own time, either in-person, via livestream, or later online with the option to switch it up from week to week.
- Gain dual advisement from both SDBL and MBA professors who will keep you on task for both master's degree and certificate programs.
- Earn your MBA, SDBL, and OLCM in 60 credits — 6 credits less than if you were to tackle them separately.
- Gain hands-on experience in an administrative internship at your current place of work or desired placement.

TESTIMONIAL

"The curriculum is interesting, informative, challenging, and rewarding. The expertise of the professors and their relevant real-life examples adds a level of enhancement to the assignments and theoretical readings. This program has allowed me to invest in my own professional development while taking my career to the next level as an educational leader."
