Keynote Speaker Biographies

AspireMN improves the lives of children, youth and families served by member organizations through support for quality service delivery, leadership development and policy advocacy.
John Kelly is the editor-in-chief of The Chronicle of Social Change, FMC’s daily news website covering the fields of child welfare, juvenile justice and other family services. Kelly helped launch The Chronicle in 2013, and oversees development and planning of the website’s coverage.

Jodi Harpstead, Governor Tim Walz named Jodi Harpstead commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Human Services in August 2019. Prior to her appointment, Commissioner Harpstead was the president and CEO of Lutheran Social Service of Minnesota (LSS) since September 2011. She also was the executive vice president and chief operating officer for LSS and spent 23 years in a variety of positions with Medtronic, Inc. Commissioner Harpstead has volunteered in leadership capacities for a variety of other organizations including Augsburg University, Lutheran Services in America and ARRM – the statewide association of community-based service providers for people with disabilities. She received her Master of Business Administration in finance and bachelor’s degree in business administration from Michigan State University.
