A SAFE environment for kids to EXPLORE...

- What is adoption?
- How are adopted families formed? Who are the different people involved?
- What are common feelings/responses to being adopted?
- Fun activities to help explore adoption related topics

Sara Barber earned her master's degree in counseling from Denver Seminary in Denver, CO. She is certified in Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy. Sara has specialized training and experience in working with adopted children and adult adoptees on issues related to attachment, attunement, and grief/loss. As a mother of three adopted children, she understands the importance of helping adoptive parents identify trauma-informed and adoption-competent parenting strategies.
