

ASPPB Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate (IPC) QUICK GUIDE

Read the ASPPB Mobility Program Policies and Procedures for a comprehensive look at the Mobility Program and requirements. Note: Requirements are subject to change and are determined by the Mobility Committee.*

The IPC promotes standardization in criteria for short-term practice and interjurisdictional mobility by facilitating the process for licensed psychologists to provide short-term psychological services across jurisdictional lines without obtaining an additional license. The IPC also provides more consistent regulation of interjurisdictional practice and allows consumers of psychological services to benefit from regulated interjurisdictional practice. The IPC allows psychologists to provide temporary psychological services in jurisdictions that accept the IPC for up to 30 work days per year without obtaining full licensure in that jurisdiction.

Application Checklist

License

- Must have a current and active psychology license, based on a doctoral degree, in an ASPPB member jurisdiction.
- No disciplinary action listed on any psychology license.

Education

- Must have doctoral degree from a regionally accredited institution, clearly listed in psychology, that included a minimum of 3 academic years of full time graduate study.
- Transcript must be sent directly to ASPPB from institution granting degree.
- Graduates from non APA/CPA accredited programs must be able to demonstrate at least 1 course (3 credits or equiv.) in ALL specific substantive areas as identified in the Mobility Program Policies and Procedures.
- Must demonstrate a minimum of 1 continuous academic year of full time residency* at the educational institution granting the doctoral degree.

*Residency means physical presence, in person, at the educational institution in a manner that facilitates the full participation and integration of the individual in the educational and training experience and includes faculty student interaction. Models that use in person contact for shorter durations throughout a year or models that use video conferencing or other electronic means to meet the residency requirement are NOT acceptable.

Renewal Requirement

Annual renewal by submission of established fee and documentation of a current active license in an ASPPB member jurisdiction. Failure to renew will cause the certificate to expire and the certificate holder may not practice if certificate is expired.
