

ASPR

Association of Staff
Physician Recruiters

Journal of the Association of Staff Physician Recruiters 2018 Marketing Kit

The official publication of ASPR, the only organization exclusively for in-house physician recruitment professionals which empowers industry experts through education, research and engagement.

JASPR is the respected educational publication for the ASPR membership and healthcare community. The publication focuses on the professions of physician, physician assistant, and advanced practice registered nurse recruitment through aggregated industry information, analysis of future and current trends, legislative news, and the sharing of best practices. JASPR is published two times per year in the spring and fall with an approximate electronic distribution of 5000 professionals. Both issues are printed and the spring issue includes the ASPR Buyers Guide. JASPR and all of its archives is an ASPR membership benefit. The current issue is available to the public until the next issue is published.
