

Clarification of a Regulatory Entity

As an independent, not for profit professional coaching body, the Association for Coaching (AC) is committed to raising the ethics and standards for coaching and mentoring worldwide.

We have recently been alerted by some of our members that an organization has sent out confusing communications alluding to the fact that they are a government-appointed entity to oversee the international regulation of coaching and mentoring.

To our understanding, and also checking in with the other professional bodies and the GCMA (Global Coaching and Mentoring Alliance), this message is to clarify that our independent and collective understanding is that no such entity officially exists. The coaching and mentoring profession remains and intends to remain self-regulated on an international scale.

