

ATHE ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Saturday, August 10 | 2:15 PM | Grand Cypress DE

All are welcome to join us for this annual meeting. Current president Harvey Young will deliver the president's address, and ATHE will recognize incoming and outgoing officers.

Performing Palimpsest Bodies

Postmemory
Theatre
Experiments

in Mexico

By Ruth Hellier-Tinoco Intellect, The University of Chicago Press, 2019

Ruth Hellier-Tinoco is a creative artist and professor of performance, music, theatre and dance at the University of California.

- palimpsest bodies perform transtemporal, feminist and queer re-visions of bodies of history and collective memories
- engages concepts of rememory, postmemory, scenarios, archives and performing remains
- in-depth analysis, with over 100 color photos, of the playfully-rigorous postdramatic performances of La Máquina de Teatro
- ideal for creative artists and scholars of contemporary theatre, performance studies and critical dance studies

This book is available to order from www.intellectbooks.com & www.press.uchicago.com

ISBN 978-1-84150-466-7 Paperback 286 pp 230 x 170 mm Price £25, $33