

Advocacy Award

This award may be made annually to recognize the advocacy efforts of an ATRA member on behalf of the recreational therapy profession and ATRA. The Federal Public Policy Team will review all applicants for this award and make a recommendation.

Qualifications:

- A. Current member of ATRA
- B. Has a consistent record of advocacy on behalf of ATRA
- C. Has served the profession through ATRA committee activities
- D. Has demonstrated efforts in the education of consumers, elected officials, administrators, and/or related allied health professionals