

Certificate of Recognition

Awarded for meritorious service that promotes, develops, or implements innovations, expansions, or improvements to recreational therapy programs, services, and/or education. This is for such service not provided under "Member of the Year" or "Distinguished Service" awards.

Qualifications:

- A. Current member of ATRA
- B. Meritorious service as noted:
 - a. Author/co-author of a textbook or publication which provides the field of recreational therapy with new concepts, assessment, and evaluation techniques, quality assurance profiles, or significant research findings
 - b. Author/developer of a film, videotape, or other audio/visual material
 - c. Outstanding service in completing an involved committee assignment
 - d. Radio or television appearance before other professionals or lay groups which help to promote the field of recreational therapy and/or the provision of recreation services for persons with disabilities
 - e. Author of articles in newspaper(s) or magazine(s) which help to promote the field of recreational therapy and/or the provision of recreation services for persons with a disability
 - f. Developing and putting into operation an innovative program of study in a college or university
 - g. Creating, designing, or manufacturing equipment/apparatus to improve recreation experiences for persons with and/or without disabilities