WHAT TYPE OF MEMBER AM I?

Q. Who can apply for INSAR Membership?
A. INSAR membership is open to individuals engaged in academic or research activities, graduate students and post doctoral researchers, and others vested in the study of autism.

Are you a researcher?

NO

YES

Are you currently a student?

NO

YES

Did you graduate within the last five years, and are currently working in a lab?

NO

YES

Are you currently living or working in a low-income country?

YES

NO

Click here to learn about Low-income rates for Student membership.

Click here to learn about Affiliate Membership:
Low-income country rates available for Affiliates as well.

Do you have at least two publications and/or funding source related to autism research?

NO

YES

Click here to learn about Low-income rates for Full membership.

Click here to learn about Student membership.

Are you currently living or working in a low-income country?

Still not sure? Please reach out to info@autism-insar.org for help!