

Network Meeting Rules of Engagement

The Association for Vascular Access is committed to providing an opportunity for members to broaden their knowledge of vascular access and related fields through networking opportunities and education. AVA Networks offer vascular access professionals the opportunity to network with other professionals in their area of expertise.

The intent of this document is to establish rules of engagement for sponsored Network meetings.

Network Dues/Fees may be collected from attendees according to Network procedures. Dues or fees are intended to support network operations.

If a sponsor requires, for compliance reasons, clarification of fees/dues (as described above) during sign-in process, the Network Officers can provide clarification as appropriate

CE Regulations – Network leaders, sponsors and speakers agree to uphold CE regulations and rules as appropriate.

AVA is an approved provider of the California Board of Registered Nursing and follows their code of regulations.

Speakers are responsible to create an educational presentation that remains free of product bias. CLICK HERE to download AVA's Tips for Non-Biased Presentation to share with the presenters of this educational presentation.

All Marketing (including flyers/emails/posters...) will provide the Network email as the contact tool for the event. This is to include questions or RSVP communications.

Sign-in sheets will serve as a record of attendance and will be provided by the Network. A copy of sign-in sheets will be given to the supporting industry representative.
