Judging

- Members of the AOMA Professional Education Committee will review all poster abstracts received by the deadline.
- If your poster is accepted, to be eligible to win a prize you or a designated alternate must present your poster in person or virtually during the AOMA 96th Annual Convention on Saturday, April 13, 2019.
- Judging is on a numerical scale based on the following:
  - Format
  - Mechanics
  - Style
  - Results/conclusions
  - Completeness of research/reference materials.
- Faculty must present their own posters. Faculty will only be judged if there are three (3) or more entries.
- The top three poster submissions in each category will be chosen and lead authors/investigators will be asked to attend the AOMA Awards Luncheon on Sunday, April 14, 2019 (time to be determined) at the Hilton Scottsdale Resort & Villas.
  - Student winners will be presented a monetary award and plaque.
  - Resident winners will be presented with a plaque.
  - Faculty, if judged, will receive a certificate.
- The winning posters may be published in the AOMA Digest, unless the author(s) specifies otherwise.
- All posters and abstracts will be displayed on the AOMA website unless the author(s) specifies otherwise.
