Point of Personal Privilege:

It has been an honor to serve AzLA over the past three years. This is a tremendous organization that has so many dedicated individuals making change happen. While there have been financial struggles, there have been so many triumphs. We have a tremendous group of individuals working on professional development as well as marketing and advocacy and we cannot forget our tremendous team for the annual conference. Thank you to each and every one of you for serving your communities AND serving each other through this organization. You are truly using your powers for good!
