

AzLA President Report

April 2017

Updates:

January 13th-Chaired the AzLA Quarterly Meeting

January 17th – Met with Debbie Hanson-Tripp and LJ Blackburn to discuss AzLA concerns

January 20th-Attended Chapter Leaders Forum at ALA Midwinter Conference, Atlanta, GA

January 21st-23rd – Attended ALA Midwinter Conference, Atlanta, GA

January 26th – Visited the new Camp Verde Community Library, Camp Verde, AZ

January 26th-28th – Attended the YA Summit, Prescott, AZ

January 27th – Contacted Andrew DeSabatino regarding the AzLA Webmaster position

February 8th – Attended virtual Conference Planning Meeting

February 13th – Hired Danielle Angerbauer as the organization's new Webmaster

February 14th-Phone call with University of Arizona regarding AzLA discount for online students

February 14th – Signed contract to work with Conference Services International for Conference Exhibits

February 23rd- Attended E-Resources Forum at Phoenix Public Library – Burton Barr

February 25th – Attended the Teacher's Library Division meeting, with State Librarian Holly Henley, at Gardner's Book Service

March 1st – Attended the YA Summit de-briefing meeting

March 2nd – Attended and participated in the virtual Chapter Advocacy Exchange Webinar

March 3rd – Signed the University of Arizona Memorandum of Understanding

March 28th – Attended Chapter Leaders Appropriations Advocacy Conference Call

March 29th-31st - Sent out emails and letters to State Representatives asking them to sign the Dear Appropriator letters for IMLS and IAL

March 30th- Meeting with Association Managers and signed checks

April 7th – Virtual meeting with Bethany and Erin

April 11th – Virtual budget meeting

Action/Discussion Items for board meeting:

Submitted by:

Sandy

Sandy Edwards, AzLA President-Elect