

Carolyn Sechler, CPA, CGMA

Carolyn Sechler, CPA, CGMA is the CEO and founder of Sechler CPA PC, a Certified B Corporation and Arizona Benefit Corporation, in Phoenix, Arizona. She brings more than 30 years of experience to her work in tax, training /education and consulting exclusively to the nonprofit sector. In 2018 she transitioned her role to consultant and development for the newly formed firm of Sechler Morgan CPAs PLLC which is now lead by team mate Kristina Morgan, CPA.

This practice, which remains a "virtual accounting firm," demonstrates Carolyn and the team's belief in the liberating power of technology and its endless opportunities. The firm's 28 team members work remotely from their homes in 6 states and Canada, utilizing the latest technological tools to better meet the needs of their clients while balancing with personal work and life styles.

With over 600 domestic and international nonprofit clients, Sechler Morgan CPAs PLLC's emphasis on the nonprofit sector is a reflection of their passion for serving those who serve their community. In addition to her role as a CPA for nonprofits, Carolyn and members of her team serve on a multitude of boards and advisory committees of local Organizations.

Carolyn was honored in May 2015 with a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Arizona Society of CPAs for her contributions to the field.

Accounting Today magazine selected Carolyn as one of the "Top 100 Most Influential People in the Profession" from 1999-2001 for her efforts in setting new standards for the accounting profession. She is an editorial advisor to several publications including Journal of Accountancy and Nonprofit Agendas.
