The Montgomery County MD Bar Foundation Pro Bono Program is a grant funded legal service program serving low-income members of our community. The Program operates evening legal advice clinics in five different locations in Montgomery County. The clinics are held twice each month at each location for a total of ten clinics per month. Information for days and locations is available at www.montbar.org. The Pro Bono Program also maintains a client intake line in the main office. Case referrals are made to volunteer attorneys for direct client representation.
