REGGIE AWARD BANQUET DRAWS CAPACITY CROWD.

Approximately 350 representatives of the housing industry were in attendance at last week's REGGIE AWARD BANQUET at the Thunderbird Motel to pay honor to the winners of top housing awards.

Sharing the spotlight with "Reggie" was Congressman Clark MacGregor, main speaker of the evening, who shared his views on the many problems facing government today.

An air of suspense and drama built up throughout the period of presentation as past Association presidents awarded winning builders with runner-up plaques and Reggie statues.

Vernon Wexler, chairman of the Reggie Award Program, served as toastmaster for the event, outlining the procedure of judging and final selection of award-winners. Many of the contest judges were on hand for the presentation. Harold Greenwood, Jr. represented the group of judges in the presentation ceremonies.
