

2019-2020 BATC-HOUSING FIRST MINNESOTA SCHOLARSHIP — ADULT APPLICATION

WHO is eligible?

- Have completed high school, or
- Have a GED
- Is a resident of, or intends to work in, the state of Minnesota
- Applicant intends to work in the construction industry

HOW to qualify:

- Applicants must be post-high school graduates or current post-secondary students pursuing a career in Residential Construction or related field, carrying a minimum of nine credit hours per semester at an accredited post-secondary institution.

WHAT steps to take:

- Applicant must fully complete the scholarship application.
- Applicant must submit two letters of recommendation from a teacher or school counselor, current or former employer, or mentor. At least one teacher recommendation is suggested.
- Applicant must submit an essay as outlined in the scholarship application covering intended career goals and interest in the home building industry.

Applications must be submitted to BATC-Housing First Minnesota by April 1, 2019.

- Scholarship award amounts are determined by the Selection Committee.
- Scholarship awards are limited to academic tuition and related learning expenses (ex. technology fees. Course fee exclusions include, but are not limited to, meal plans, parking, activity fees, etc.) and paid directly to the educational institution.
- To ensure an unbiased application process, applicant names will be unavailable to the Selection Committee. Scoring will be based only on academics, community and extracurricular involvement, leadership potential, and construction experience.
- If a recipient is unable to accept the award, the Selection Committee will choose a replacement.
- The Selection Committee will determine annual scholarships based on funds available and the number of applicants. Students may reapply two consecutive years if he/she maintains enrollment and provides a letter of recommendation from a faculty member.
