Is there a cost to attend?

Yes, there is a registration fee of $400 for All Stages and $200 for Metastatic (Stage IV) Retreats. The remaining cost is paid for via scholarship funds from BCR. We offer financial assistance for the registration fee, in addition to the overall scholarship for all women to attend a retreat.

Women living with breast cancer often face considerable medical expenses. Breast Cancer Recovery places a strong emphasis on ensuring that all women – regardless of financial standing – can experience an Infinite Boundaries Retreat.

We have never turned anyone away who wanted to attend a retreat.

When should I attend?

Women attend retreats at different times from the date of diagnosis. Frequently, they choose to attend after treatment has ended.

Many women are years out from their diagnosis and feel they are in a place where they would like to focus on living life more fully. If you are in treatment at the time of retreat, we ask to have your physician sign a release.

How do I sign up?

Retreat schedules, costs and registration information can be found online at bcrecovery.org or by contacting our office at (608) 661-4178.

Our mission is to provide environments for women breast cancer survivors to heal emotionally.

“Thank you so much for the opportunity to participate in the Infinite Boundaries Retreat. I was able to connect with other breast cancer survivors, and explore topics that are often not discussed by medical professionals despite the impact on our daily lives. It was wonderful to know I’m not alone. The weekend was extremely meaningful for me and I came home with many resources”.

What to expect at a retreat
Retreats provide a private and safe environment for discussions including:
- Difficult feelings such as fear, anger, betrayal, and guilt
- Issues surrounding your breast cancer
- Restoring your sense of joy in areas such as sensuality and sexuality
- Living with the fear the cancer may return

Additionally, we offer creative arts and low-impact physical activities* that encourage you to spread your wings and build bonds with new-found sisters in healing environments. It’s all part of the journey to heal emotionally.

The beautiful accommodations provide you with a private comfortable room, daily activities, group discussions and nutritious meals with special dietary options honored.

*Activities vary by location.
