

Kurt R. Steinkrauss is a member in the Private Client Group of Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo PC, an Am Law 100 firm. Kurt is a leader in the Private Client Group and serves as Chair of the Closely Held Business Group and Co-chair of the Private Equity Practice. He is also a member of the firm's Policy Committee. Kurt focuses on estate and tax planning, general corporate matters, and employment matters.

In his estate planning practice, Kurt assists individuals and families in planning and carrying out tax-efficient transfers of wealth, asset distribution, trust administration, charitable gift planning, and business succession. In his corporate work, Kurt works closely with family businesses, start-ups, and emerging companies in a variety of sectors. He specializes in advising clients on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and succession planning. In his employment practice, Kurt advises executives on employment agreements, SEC issues, stock options, and deferred compensation matters.

Kurt is a frequent lecturer for a number of organizations and has been regularly published. He sits on a number of boards of non-profit organizations and is active in his community on a volunteer basis.

Before joining Mintz Levin, Kurt was a tax consultant at Arthur Andersen LLP. Prior to that, he served as a law clerk for the Estate and Gift Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Service.