

Glenn P. Ladwig, Partner, Saliwanchik, Lloyd & Eisenschenk, P.A.

An intellectual property attorney for over 18 years, Glenn concentrates his practice in patent law relating to most areas of the life sciences, including the filing and prosecution of patent applications; counseling clients with regard to intellectual property strategy and licensing matters; and providing legal opinions regarding patentability, freedom-to-operate, validity, and infringement. Glenn is a Registered Patent Attorney, is Board Certified in Intellectual Property Law by the Florida Bar, and is a Certified Licensing Professional (CLP). His clients include individuals, universities, research institutions, and companies, and he has served as in-house intellectual property counsel for publicly-traded biopharmaceutical companies.

A graduate of Stetson University College of Law, Glenn also has an undergraduate degree in biology from Saint Leo University, and two master's degrees from the University of Florida Colleges of Medicine and Pharmacy. Glenn is active in BioFlorida, serving on the Board of Directors, chairing its Membership Committee, and previously serving as a Chapter Co-Chair.
