BIOGRAPHY

Robert (Rob) G. Finizio is CEO of TherapeuticsMD Inc., an innovative women's health company.

Leveraging proprietary technologies, Rob is leading publicly traded TherapeuticsMD through FDA developmental review of its novel natural hormone products for menopause-related therapies.

Combining his background in women's healthcare, pharmaceutical technology, clinical software, and patient safety, in 2008 Rob co-founded today's TherapeuticsMD, which includes prescription and over-the-counter vitamin products. He has raised more than $125 million in capital since. Previously, Rob co-founded CareFusion in 2001, selling it to Cardinal Health in 2006.

Prior to his healthcare career, Rob, a University of Miami graduate, taught English in Osaka, Japan.
