

BISA Career Achievement Award

Looking for a way to recognize a colleague's significant career milestone? The Bank Insurance & Securities Association is currently accepting nominations for the Career Achievement Award.

The BISA Career Achievement Award recognizes the professional achievement of individuals within the brokerage channel of the financial industry. Candidates for this recognition will have achieved 20 years in the financial services industry and reached a significant milestone, including promotion, anniversary or upcoming retirement.

BISA member organizations can nominate two employees per year. Those nominating must be an employee of the same company as the nominee and have the endorsement of the company CEO or highest ranking officer in the banking channel. Nominations for this recognition are accepted throughout the year and will be awarded quarterly.

Recipients will be acknowledged in the second quarter BISA magazine and at the BISA Annual Convention following the year they win. Additionally, employers will be provided with a BISA certificate to recognize the individual at a company recognition event.

Please visit the BISA website at www.bisanet.org for more information and to learn how to submit a nomination.
