
JAMES GERMAN

GERMAN--James L., III,

a physician scientist and early pioneer in human genetics died peacefully at home April 21, 2018. Born in Sherman, Texas, he served in the Navy in WWII, then worked at the National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD. He began genetics research at Rockefeller University in 1958, subsequently headed laboratories at Cornell University Medical College and New York Blood Center. He was a gifted pianist and pipe organist. He leaves his beloved Margaret, wife of 62 years, and children, Ann and James and six grandchildren. Funeral service at House of Redeemer 7 East 95th, NYC at 11am, Saturday, May 19. In lieu of flowers, a gift may be made to the House of the Redeemer.

Published in The New York Times on May 13, 2018
