The Manchester International Convention Centre is shown as "MICC" near the middle of the accompanying map of Manchester City Centre. It is adjacent to the G-MEX exhibition centre (built in the old Central Railway Station). Both centres are located in the Peter’s Fields area of the city. The entrance to the MICC is in Windmill Street, which runs between Lower Mosley Street and Peter Street, behind the Midland Hotel. If you can find the entrance to the GMEX centre, then the MICC is just on its right. However don’t walk up the ramp, but keep to the pavement, because the entrance is at street level.

By Car
Head for the city centre and follow the brown tourist signs towards the Castfield area. As you get closer, follow signs for Peter’s Fields and eventually GMEX instead. See below for detailed directions.

Car parking at GMEX
Parking Vouchers can be purchased in advance - DEADLINE DATE 4th March 2005 at £6.00 per day including VAT. Download a form from the BNMS website www.bnms.org.uk/forthcoming events
These vouchers are valid for GMEX car parks as follows:
UNDERCROFT CAR PARK
Access from Lower Mosley Street, 24 hours.
UPPER LEVEL CAR PARK
Access from A34 (Trafford Street) 07.30 - 21.00 (or 1 hour after close of conference, if later)
In the unlikely event that both these car parks are full and you have purchased vouchers in advance, parking is available at the Great Northern Car park. Please report to Customer Services at the car park (located by the barrier) who will arrange entry.

Detailed directions:
The following directions assume that you wish to park in the Great Northern car park.

From the north east and east, leave the M62 at junction 18 and take the M60 (East). Leave the M60 at the next exit, junction 19, and follow the A56 towards Manchester. In 2 miles turn left onto the A665. After a further 2 miles this brings you onto the city centre map at Chapel Street. When you reach the Inner Ring Road turn right and after going under the railway bridge keep straight on down Quay Street. In ½ mile turn right into Deansgate and then first left into Great Bridgewater Street where the car park is on the left.

From the west, at M62 junction 12 keep straight ahead onto the M602. At the end of the M602 keep straight ahead onto the A57. After ½ mile this brings you onto the city centre map at Regent Road. Bear right onto the Inner Ring Road following signs for A57(M). After going through the underpass take the next slip road and at the roundabout turn left. Then in ½ mile turn left under the green tramway bridge into Great Bridgewater Street. The Great Northern car park is on the right.

From the south, leave the M6 at junction 19 and take the A566 towards Manchester. In 4 miles join the M66 towards Manchester. At the end of the M66 keep straight ahead onto the A5103. After 5 miles this brings you onto the city centre map at Princess Road. At the roundabout under the Mancunian Way go straight on, and then in ½ mile turn left under the green tramway bridge into Great Bridgewater Street. The Great Northern car park is on the right.

The Metrolink tram
The Metrolink tram system runs through the city centre from Bury in the North, to Altrincham in the South and to Eccles in the West. St Peter’s Square is the nearest stop to the Convention Centre. From there walk down Lower Mosley Street with the Midland Hotel on your right. After passing the Midland Hotel you can’t miss the GMEX centre, and the MICC is on its right. However, don’t walk up the ramp, but keep to the pavement, because the entrance to MICC is at street level.

By Rail:
Manchester Deansgate Station is about ½ mile from the Convention Centre and has a walkway to the MICC round the back of GMEX. However this leads to a back entrance which is not easy to find. If you arrive at Piccadilly Station or Victoria Station it is easier to take a Metrolink tram and alight at St Peter’s Square, which is only a 3 minute walk from the Convention Centre (see above).

By Air:
Manchester Airport has a frequent train service into the city centre with a journey time of about 15 minutes. Either take a train to Piccadilly Station and then take the Metrolink as above, or travel to Deansgate Station and walk.
