26 April 2022

Dear Colleague

2022 Clinical Excellence Awards

The Clinical Excellence Awards 2022 are now open.

The BNMS will be making recommendations of a number of suitable medically qualified candidates for higher awards: levels 9-12, 4 Bronze, 2 Silver, and 1 Gold.

The BNMS may also submit supporting citations. (See below)

If you feel you have made a significant contribution to Nuclear Medicine at regional, national or international level, particularly involving the BNMS, send your application form A in confidence c/o carolineoxley@bnms.org.uk as soon as possible.

(To allow time for BNMS to process, score and shortlist applications must be received by Tuesday 3rd May at 5pm).

Please note that you will have to submit your application via the online system on the ACCEA website.

The forms are available using the link below:

Please attach a covering note highlighting your contribution to the BNMS and any other significant achievements that you would like to be highlighted in a citation

Check the BNMS website and your emails from the BNMS regularly for updates.

The BNMS has set up a panel of Past Presidents and Higher Award holders, and we will consider all applications, and make nominations as appropriate, within the limits set by the ACCEA.

For local (1-9) awards, it is possible that the BNMS can also supply supporting citations that may be helpful, perhaps in cases where you feel your contribution to nuclear
