Community Group Offers Legal Workshop on Fair Housing Laws for Greenville HOA & Condo Leaders

October 2018 - Community Associations Institute (CAI) invites all Greenville-area community association leaders and managers to a workshop on "The Fair Housing Act: A Practical Guide for HOAs."

HOA Board members bear a legal responsibility that can't be delegated or assigned to anyone else, including a professional manager. Doing this job well means constant learning.

Our presentation will highlight real-life scenarios that board members face and share real-life do's and don'ts. Presenter Lori Jones, partner with the law firm of Jordan Price, will offer insights on:

How to Handle the Most Common Fair Housing Requests

- How to Avoid the Most Common Fair Housing Mistakes
- How to Handle Formal and Informal Fair Housing Complaints
- How to Proactively Think About Fair Housing
- Fair Housing Issues in the News

CAI helps homeowner and condominium association board members do their jobs more professionally, more effectively and more comfortably. Advance questions are encouraged.
