Community Group Offers Legal Workshop for HOA & Condo Association Leaders

October 2018 - Community Associations Institute (CAI) invites all Kitty Hawk-area volunteer leaders and managers to a double-header workshop featuring two topics important to all community associations:

- Collections Tips & Tricks for Community Leaders
- Developing Reasonable Rules for your Community

HOA Board members bear a legal responsibility that can't be delegated or assigned to anyone else, including a professional manager. Doing this job well means constant learning.

Our presentation will highlight real-life scenarios that board members face, and share real-life do's and don'ts. Presenters are Matt Waters, partner with the law firm of Jordan Price, and Adam Beaudoin, partner with the firm of Ward and Smith.

CAI helps homeowner and condominium association board members do their jobs more professionally, more effectively and more confidently.
