Community Group Presents "Keeping Your Communities SAFE" for Triangle HOA & Condo Leaders

March 2019 - Community Associations Institute (CAI) invites all Raleigh-area community association (HOA) leaders and managers to a dual presentation on safely operating HOA facilities and hosting activities such as swim teams. Presenters:

Hope Carmichael, Partner- Jordan Price Wall Gray & Jones PA

Legal risks and issues arriving with springtime activities in our communities include operating common areas and amenities such as playgrounds, sport courts, pools and clubhouses, which can represent liability for the association. Both volunteer leaders and professional managers will learn how to identify these and steer clear.

Cristin DeRonja, Executive Director -SAFEchild

Powerful words and pictures illustrate the easily-overlooked realities of child abuse in a community setting. SAFEchild – "Stop Abuse For Every child" – works to educate and raise awareness about the issue of child abuse in Wake County and to prevent child abuse through empowerment of caregivers and parents. The community association environment is an important setting in this effort, and both volunteer leaders and professional managers play an important role in ensuring their families' safety.

CAI helps community association managers and board members do their jobs more professionally, more effectively and more comfortably.
