

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information:
Leslie Blum, Executive Director
CAI-NC Leslie.blum@cai-nc.org
www.cai-nc.org

Community Associations Institute Presents "Community Law Day"

Helping HOA Volunteer Leaders & Managers Understand their Legal Responsibilities

This 9th annual workshop helps community associations from across NC to more fully understand the laws that apply to homeowner and condominium associations.

Sixteen topics on legal issues and best practices will be presented by attorneys and allied professionals from across the state, with sessions valuable for both seasoned and less experienced volunteer leaders and professional managers.

Registration includes all sessions, breakfast and lunch, free parking, plus copies of all slide presentations.

Sampling of the 16 topics:

- Who's Going to Fix My Property after a major weather event? HOA/Condo Maintenance, Repair & Casualty
- How to Avoid Litigation: Using mediation to solve "gray area" problems
- Walking the Tightrope: Service Animals & Comfort Animals in community associations
- Navigating the Legal Arena of Insurance- with emphasis on flood insurance
- Must-Have Policies for Associations: rules needed to quell conflict, answer questions, fulfill board members' fiduciary responsibility
- HOA Board Member Ethics & Fiduciary Responsibility

When: Friday, Oct. 19, 2018 – 8:30 AM- 2:30 PM

Where: McKimmon Center, 1110 Gorman Drive, Raleigh, NC

Cost: $80 with individual CAI-NC membership; $99 all others

SEE ALL TOPICS / GET MORE INFO / REGISTER

<http://bit.ly/NCLawDay2018>

CAI (Community Associations Institute) is an international non-profit organization providing education, resources and advocacy for the volunteers who govern community associations and the professionals who support them. The North Carolina chapter is one of the nation's largest. www.cai-nc.org