Department of Consumer Protection – (DCP)

<https://portal.ct.gov/DCP/License-Services-Division/All-License-Applications/Real-Estate---Community-Association-Managers>

Requires a license for Community Association Manager (CAM) - a natural person who provides association management services, and includes any partner, director, officer, employee or agent of such person who directly provides association management services.

Required Course and Examination to earn license:

1. Certificate confirming the successful completion of a nationally recognized course on community association management.

The Community Association Institute's (CAI) - M-100 course satisfies this requirement. Information on the course can be found at <https://www.caionline.org/LearningCenter/Education-for-Managers/Pages/default.aspx>.

2. Certificate confirming the successful completion of the Community Association Managers International Certification

(CAMICB) Certification for Community Association Manager's (CMCA) examination.
Information on the CMCA Examination can be found at <https://www.camicb.org>.

Renewal of CMCA – requires 16 continuing ed credits every 2 years
