

CPS Announces the Inaugural
Women in Learning and Leadership (WILL)
Session at the 40th Annual Scientific Meeting

Please join us as we launch our Women in Learning and Leadership (WILL) program at a lunch session on Thursday April 4th during our 40th Annual Scientific Meeting.

WILL has been established to provide a platform to inform, inspire, and promote women in academic, research, clinical, and policy environments related to the field of pain. We also encourage men to be engaged in this platform to raise awareness and perspectives for/from men.

We are thrilled to announce that the 2019 session will open with talks from three prominent figures in learning and leadership, followed by a panel discussion, and Q&A:

Janet Rossant PhD, CC, FRS, FRSC

Senior Scientist and Chief of Research Emeritus, Hospital for Sick Children
University Professor, Department of Molecular Genetics, University of Toronto
Gairdner Foundation's President and Scientific Director

Lisa Robinson MD, FRCP(C)

Associate Dean, Inclusion and Diversity, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto
Professor, Department of Paediatrics, University of Toronto
Head, Division of Nephrology, The Hospital for Sick Children (SickKids)
Senior Scientist, SickKids Research Institute

Jim Woodgett PhD

Senior Investigator and Director of Research, Lunenfeld-Tanenbaum Research Institute, Sinai Health System
Professor, Department of Medical Biophysics, University of Toronto

The 2018-2019 WILL platform committee is Karen Davis (chair), Melanie Noel, Natalie Osborne, Fiona Campbell, and Tuan Trang. The committee thanks Christine Chambers for her insights and suggestions.

#CanadianPain19