Statement of purpose
The Canadian Oncology Nursing Journal is the official publication of the Canadian Association of Nurses in Oncology, and is directed to the professional nurse caring for patients with cancer. The journal supports the philosophy of the national association. The philosophy is: “The purpose of this journal is to communicate with the members of the Association. This journal currently acts as a vehicle for news related to clinical oncology practice, technology, education and research. This journal aims to publish timel papers, to promote the image of the nurse involved in cancer care, to stimulate nursing issues in oncology nursing, and to encourage nurses to publish in national media.” In addition, the journal serves as a newsletter conveying information related to the Canadian Association of Nurses in Oncology, it intends to keep Canadian oncology nurses current in the activities of their national association. Recognizing the value of nursing literature, the editorial board will collaborate with editorial boards of other journals and indexers to increase the quality and accessibility of nursing literature.
