- Accepting entries October 1, 2019 – February 7, 2020

September 1, 2019

Dear Student:

Allow us to provide you with a professional critique of your work and introduce to hundreds of journalism and communication professionals.

Whether you are a writer, graphic designer, video specialist or a social media expert, our judges view each entry as if it were being submitted to an editor for submission into a publication, and each entry receives a beneficial critique from a judge.

This is the perfect competition for students invested in career planning. Award winners earn recognition that enhance resumes, and sometimes earn internships while still in school. The winner of Best Single Story is eligible for an expense paid trip to the June 2020 Catholic Media Conference, valued at $1500, with the opportunity to meet and network with more than 300 journalism and communication professionals.

Entry into the Best Student Publication category is free, all other categories are just $18. Please check with your organization to find out if funding is available to support your participation.

"I feel really fortunate to have been able to attend the CPA awards. I met so many inspiring journalists at the banquet who welcomed my family and I with open arms into the ceremony. Because of this opportunity, I was able to meet Ana, a Barry Alumna who offered me the opportunity to become a freelancer with the Florida Catholic. Overall it was a great experience!"

Johania Charles, Barry College, Miami, FL

We hope you accept this opportunity to further your career, we know you'll find the experience rewarding.

Thank you for considering the Catholic Press Association's Student Journalism Awards.

Sincerely,

Tim Walter
Executive Director

Additional Background Information

The Catholic Press Association, founded in 1911, sponsors the Student Journalism Awards to promote professional journalism and communication practices. Its 230 publications have a circulation of over 10 million households. Its 860 members are general managers, editors, writers, graphic designers, production staff, freelance contributors, communication professionals, and advertising specialists.

Instituted to nurture the next generation of Catholic communication professionals, this program is part of a national program accepting over 3000 entries per cycle.

This year's Catholic Media Conference takes place June 30, 31 and July 1, 2, 2020 in Portland, Oregon. While there, the student has the opportunity to attend career-based workshops, meet the CPA's board of directors, participate in a Young Professionals roundtable, and build relationships with attendees from more than 100 U.S. and Canadian media outlets.

Photos may be black- and white- or color. This category is separated into two sections for those working with either digital or film formats. Manipulated images may be submitted only if they were identified as such when published. An entry consists of one PDF file containing the page on which the photo was published, and a second PDF file containing an image of the photo by itself.

S05a: Digital Format

S05b: Film Format

Writing

S06: Best Writing – Single Story

This category emphasizes the skill of the writer covering a topic. Judges critique the quality and conciseness of the work as well as the writer's ability to convey the message. Sidebars may be included; photos, charts and illustrations are not considered. An entry consists of one PDF file or URL where the content may be viewed by judges.

S06a: Feature * – For stories covering a group, trend, or event of general interest. Community service, volunteerism, and personality profiles work well in this category. Editorials and breaking news are excluded.

S06b: Sports – For a one-shot section, feature article, or personality profile of an athlete or sports team.

S06c: News – For coverage of a straight news subject or topic originating primarily in the geographical area of the publication.

* The winning entrant of S06a receives a first-place certificate, and an expense paid trip to the Catholic Media Conference valued at $1500, as outlined on Page 3, Networking.

S07: Best Writing – Series

This category is for best series published in a university publication. The entry must be three articles. The articles may be published in print or online. The entire series must be consecutive and published within 2019.

Submit a PDF file or URL where articles can be located through the awards website. Publication date must be visible on submission.

S15: Social Justice

This category features the work of students and their involvement in social justice issues, such as human dignity, rights and responsibilities, and solidarity. The work may be from 2019 or cover a span of years, but must be published in a 2019.

An entry consists of one PDF file containing the page(s) on which the article was published.

General Excellence

S21: Best University Student Publication

The General Excellence Award recognizes the Best University Student Publication. Judges consider each of the following criteria: selection of stories, originality, quality of writing and headlines, columns, editorials and letters to the editor, quality and appropriateness of art and graphics, and overall design.

Entry consists of a PDF of three-consecutive issues of the publication, or a URL where the publications can be viewed.
