Step 2 View Categories

Click on the blue tab to view your categories to judge

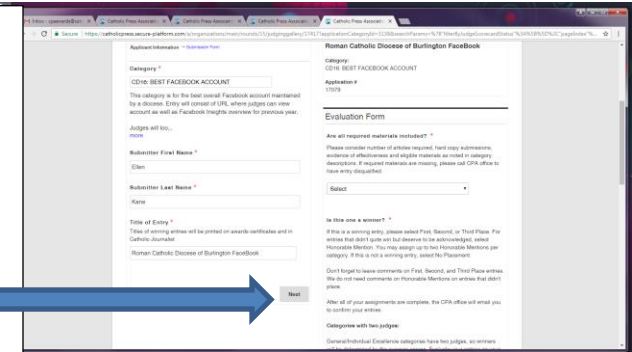

This where you will see all your entries to judge. Click the BLUE entry title

This title will then bring you to their application

Step 4- You will see the application to the left of your screen

There is a next button, this bottom will allow you to go to the second page of their application and scroll down to whatever documents and links they have.; As a judge you will need to view all links before judging the work

The second page (after you scroll down the application looks like this)

Evaluation Form

Are all required materials included? *

Please consider number of entries required, best entry submissions, evidence of photographs and digital materials as noted in category description. If required materials are missing, please call CCR office to have entry disqualified.

Select

Is this one a winner? *

If this is a winning entry, please select First, Second, or Third Place. For entries that don't quite fit but deserve to be acknowledged, select Honorable Mention. You may assign up to two Honorable Mentions per category. If this is not a winning entry, select Not Recommended.

Don't forget to leave comments on First, Second, and Third Place entries. We do not need comments on Honorable Mentions or entries that don't place.

After all of your assignments are complete, the CCR office will email you to confirm your entries.

Complete with best judges:

General/Individual Excellence categories have best judges, no winners

Good luck!!
